

Graduate School of Information Science and Technology, Osaka University

Application Guide for Research Students for 2021

1. Admission Requirements

An applicant must fulfill one of the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant has graduated or is expected to graduate from a university or a Japanese professional university by the end of the month before the month in which he/she wishes to enroll
- (2) The applicant is recognized by the Graduate School as a person having an academic background equivalent or superior to those who meet requirement (1) above.

2. Admission Date and Enrollment Period

The date of admission shall be April 1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an applicant may be accepted for admission on the first day of each month provided that there are extenuating circumstances. An applicant who intends to enter the Graduate School on the first day of any month must contact the academic supervisor (or the Department Chair) of the department he/she intends to enter.

The enrollment period for a research student shall be three months or more but one year or less from the date on which he/she would enter the Graduate School. On the other hand, in any case, it cannot extend beyond March 31, 2022. The enrollment period shall start on the first day and end on the last day of each month.

3. Academic Supervisor

Each research student will have his/her own academic supervisor.

4. Application Procedure

All applicants must contact the academic supervisor (or the Department Chair) of the department they intend to enter for obtaining the approval of their research plans, etc., before submitting their application form.

All applications must be submitted to the Graduates Section by hand by the designated dates, using an envelope of 33cm×24cm in size.

Submission of an application form to the Graduates Section by postal mail is permissible by a recorded delivery (kani-kakitome), using an envelope of 33cm×24cm in size, so that it reaches the university by the application deadline, provided that the applicant has an acceptable reason for doing so.

Indicate 'Research Students Application documents' in red ink on the outside of the envelope.

See the website below for e-mail addresses of Department Chairs and academic supervisors:

6. Selection Methods

Professors of this Graduate School will examine, select and decide successful applicants.

7. Announcement of Results

A notification will be sent to each applicant via postal mail.

8. Admission Procedure

- (1) Details on the periods of admission procedures will be sent to each successful applicant. They will be notified of details regarding the payment of admission fees (¥84,600 - subject to change).
- (2) Make sure to bring the notification of results for the admission procedure.
- (3) International students will receive a Letter of Acceptance.
- (4) Admission fees are not refunded regardless of reasons.
- (5) In the case of a change in admission fees, the revised admission fees will be applicable as of the date when they are effective.

9. Tuition Fee

- (1) Tuition fees must be paid within the designated period. (¥173,400- as half of the annual tuition fees - this figure is subject to change.)
- (2) The tuition for a student whose tuition period is less than six months is ¥28,900/month (subject to change) multiplied by the number of months the student plans to stay in the Graduate School.
- (3) Payment methods, etc., of tuition fees will be notified to each applicant after admission.
- (4) Once paid, the tuition fees will not be refunded whatever the reason might be.
- (5) In the case of a change in tuition fees during school terms, the revised tuition fees will be applicable as of the date when they are effective.

10. Leaving School without Completion

A student intending to leave school without completing the course should submit a form of withdrawal at least one month in advance of the leaving. A student whose tuition payments are in arrears cannot leave school till tuition is fully paid.

11. Extension of Enrollment Periods

A student who intends to continue their study and research on the same theme, as a research student, on or after April 1, 2022 is required to complete the designated procedure to extend the enrollment period. A student who intends to continue study and research but fails to undertake the designated procedure for extension of his/her enrollment period should leave school as of March 31, 2022 due to the expiry of the enrollment period.

12. Handling of Personal Information

The names, addresses and other personal information obtained from applicants are used for entrance examination purposes such as the 'selection of students (handling of applications and selection examinations)' and 'admission procedures' only.

For those admitted to Osaka University, personal information is also used for 'student control purposes (school register control and course taking instructions),' 'student support,' and 'tuition fee collection'.

13. Cautions

- (1) A research student is not allowed to apply for student fares and student commuter pass for transportation and other discount services applicable to students (except for Kintetsu bus).
- (2) Application documents which are incomplete, or contain errors and omissions will not be accepted.
- (3) An applicant who has submitted false information in the application documents may be subject to the cancellation of his/her admission to the Graduate School.
- (4) Examination fees are not refunded except in the following cases:
 - (a) an applicant is found not to be qualified for the examination after his/her submission of application documents,
 - (b) application documents arrive after the specified period and hence are rejected,
 - (c) application documents are incomplete, or contain errors and omissions and hence are rejected,
 - (d) examination fees are paid but the applicant does not take the examination,
 - (e) examination fees are paid twice erroneously, or
 - (f) other cases in which the University elects to award a refund.

In the case of (a) to (f) above, an applicant should make a claim for a refund of the examination fees to the University. For the detailed procedures, contact to the Graduates Section.

- (5) Due to the spread of the COVID-19, the information described in the application guides may be changed. Please check the graduate school website regularly for the latest information.
