Regarding the submission of application documents for entrance examination conducted in 2021

Graduate School of Information Science and Technology, Osaka University

Due to a new coronavirus infection, if there are any documents that applicants cannot submit during the application period or if delivery delays are expected for international mails, etc. please follow the instructions below for the time being. It is recommended to plan carefully and allow enough time for the application procedure to meet the deadline.

※"Application" in this text means both "pre-application" and "main application".

<When any of the required documents cannot be submitted during the application period>

If there are any documents that applicants cannot submit during the application period due to a new coronavirus infection, please be sure to contact the graduate school department by email at least 7 days before the first day of the application period. Please write (1) Name (in English, and also in Chinese characters if you have), (2) Selection name you apply for, (3) Document name that you cannot submit and (4) Reason for not being able to submit.

※Regarding the documents that cannot be submitted, we may inform you the alternatives individually. Please send the indicated documents, in that case.

Please be sure to submit the officially required documents as soon as they become available.

<When there are possibilities of delivery delays for international mails, etc.>

Because the coronavirus outbreak has caused temporary stopping or suspension of acceptance and delivery delays of mail items in some countries and territories, If the delivery delays due to the coronavirus are expected for international mails, etc., please let us know your situation by the first day of the application period.

※We will check the application and give instructions on how to submit individually.

The information above may be changed accordingly. Please check the website regularly for the latest information.
